Promotion of Allison Bernabei at AllTranstek Improves Customer Impact

Downers Grove, IL: AllTranstek, L.L.C. recently announced the promotion of Allison Bernabei to Vice President of Fleet Management Services.

This appointment will unite the fleet management group, which is comprised of three service teams in our Downers Grove, IL and Houston, TX locations, creating a cohesive experience for our customers and our employees.

In her expanded role, Bernabei will focus the core business unit on defining customer requirements and expectations, increasing communication and improving efficiencies while continuing to deliver industry leading service.

“Allison brings a level of dedication to our customers and our team that is unmatched. Her drive for excellence will allow us to better impact all of our services over the lifespan of our customer relationships, which we hold very dearly,” said Jeff Wilson, President of AllTranstek.

Bernabei joined AllTranstek in 1997 and has held a series of progressive leadership positions which have led to the expansion of AllTranstek’s product and services offering.

“We are excited to have Allison in this key role, her industry knowledge and ability to build successful teams will be critical to our continued success as we enhance processes and procedures to provide customers with essential information needed to operate their railcar fleets,” said Andy Schaffer, AllTranstek’s Chief Operating Officer.
